New York City.

Dear Sir:

I take pleasure in handing you herewith, three United States Government dies; one of 1803 and the other of 1818, the third date is undecipherable. I wish to present these to your Society, and trust that you will be pleased to have them.

With kind regards, believe me,

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

Mr. Edward T. Newell has asked me to acknowledge and thank you very much, on behalf of the Society, for your gift of three United States Government dies. We are very glad indeed to add these to our Cabinet and greatly appreciate your kind thought for our Museum.

Very truly yours,

Acting Secretary & Curator
